Importance of School Discipline.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Lancaster school district held Monday in the office of Col. Leroy Springs, chairman of the board, the resolution published elsewhere was passed unanimously. This action was considered necessary in view of some recent occurrences in the Central school which were calculated to do harm. The Board have acted wisely in the matter. By the passage of the resolution they simply put parents on notice that if they do not wish corporal punishment inflicted on their children, they must notify the Superintendent of the fact, in advance, and be prepared for their expulsion for serious offenses against the rules of the school. In order to operate a school successfully, in any community, it is absolutely necessary that discipline should be maintained at all hazards. If parents are permitted to interfere and have their way, the work of the best teachers will come to naught. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred the child is in the "wrong" and when the parent steps in and takes his or her part, the result is not only subversion of discipline but a serious injury is done the child as well. Parents should remember that the public schools are supported by the taxes of all the people and should be run for the common good and not in the interest of any one man or set of men. Proper consideration should be had for teachers. They may have their frailties common to human nature—but as a rule no more earnest and conscientious class of people live. Their lot is not often a happy one, especially if their efforts are not appreciated and their work interfered with. So, from now on, let everybody interested in the welfare of the school give their hearty co-operation and support to both teachers and trustees. Then Lancaster may well boast of having one of the best schools in the State.

Watch For The Comet

The Red Dragon of the sky. Watch the children for spring coughs and colds. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. It is the best and safest prevention and cure for cough where the need is urgent and immediate relief is vital. It contains no opiate or harmful drugs. Refuse substitutes. J. F. Mackey Co. Well Done, Governor.

If Governor Ansel could have found anywhere in South Carolina better appointees for the Asylum Commission than those he has selected, their names do not occur to us. Without exception the gentlemen named are men of wide information, clear vision, sound judgment, practical common sense and highest integrity. We congratulate Governor Ansel, and we congratulate the people of South Carolina, that he has been able to secure the services of Dr. Robert Wilson, Jr., the Hon. R. O. Purdy, the Hon. Geo. B. Cromer and Col. Leroy Springs to co-operate with Dr. Babcock in reorganizing the State Hospital for the Insane. There is no light task, but we are sure that they will accomplish it in a manner to merit the grateful approval of all right-thinking citizens.—News and Courier.

Jackson's Birth Place.

Editor Lancaster News:—I have not closely followed the controversy with reference to the birth place of Andrew Jackson, but looking over Mills' Atlas, a copy of which is owned by Mr. Geo. H. O'Leary of this town, I find a most excellent map of Lancaster County, surveyed and made by J. Boykin for Mills' Atlas in 1820. On the map is marked, "Birth Place of Gen. A. Jackson," which is a short distance above John Crawford's bridge on Waxhaw Creek, in Lancaster County.

It will be remembered that Jackson was not inaugurated President until 1829, and certainly there was no controversy as to his birth place in 1820, when this map was made, and yet a reliable surveyor, basing his information upon what those who knew Jackson perfectly well, and must have known exactly where he was born, pointed out as the place of his birth in Lancaster County, nine years before he was inaugurated President.

It seems to me that this map is very strong corroborative evidence that Andrew Jackson knew what he was talking about when he asserted that he was a native of South Carolina.

Real Estate, Insurance and Money to Loan.

Lands for sale, plantations to farm on, houses ready to move into, or lots suitable to build any kind of a house on from a two room cabin to a ten thousand dollar mansion. Land is going higher and now is a good time to get a bargain. If you want to buy a plantation at a bargain, I will sell you one and guarantee you ten per cent. on your investment from the day you buy. What better would you want? I will guarantee you ten per cent. on your investment, if you will buy a nice building lot, even if you don't touch it. And I will make arrangements for you to get the money to pay cash for a plantation or a lot if you will give sufficient security. Why keep in a bank at 4 per cent. when I can sell you land guaranteeing you 10 per cent. I am able to carry out my contract. I have sold 1,500 acres of land since August for something over 24 thousand dollars, and I am expecting to sell out about all my bargains this fall.

Dealing in land is my business. I know the worth of a piece of land when I see it just like Cope Elliott does a mule when he looks at one.

I would like to list ten thousand acres more land so I can do some extensive out of the State advertising. If you have any land for sale and want it cut off or sold I shall be glad to handle it. Don't forget I handle insurance. I want to write all my friends a good big policy. Keep your eye on my advertisement elsewhere.

Easter at Unity.

The first Sabbath of April was the regular day in course at Unity and the nearest day to Easter. The sermon was on the "Resurrection," and the pulpit platform was decorated with flowers, lilacs, lillies, ferns, geraniums, begonias and tulips. The music was fine and in keeping with the occasion. A good congregation filled the house.

There is no cough medicine so popular as Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to cure coughs, colds and bronchitis. J. F. Mackey Co. Lancaster Pharmacy.

Col. Leroy Springs Honored.

Gov. Ansel after giving careful consideration to the matter, has appointed the State Hospital Commission created by act of the last Legislature, to purchase lands and erect buildings thereon to relieve the present congestive condition at the State Hospital for the Insane. The Act directs the Governor to appoint a commission consisting of five persons, two of whom shall be the superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane and the chairman of the State Board of Health.

The Governor has accordingly appointed Dr. J. W. Babcock, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane, Columbia; Dr. Robert Wilson, Jr., chairman of the State Board of Health, Charleston; Judge R. O. Purdy, Sumter, Dr. George B. Cromer, Newberry; Leroy Springs, Lancaster. This was a very important matter, and Gov. Ansel, in keeping with his custom, has made a very wise selection in the three last named. Judge Purdy is an able lawyer and a successful business man. Dr. Cromer has practiced law and is now one of the foremost educators in the State, and Col. Springs is acknowledged to be one of the most successful business men and financiers in the South. Lancaster, of course, is justly proud of this honor conferred upon Col. Springs. The salary is only nominal, carrying $5 for each day actually employed about the business of the commission and actual expenses for the time engaged. The commission are authorized to borrow $100,000 at 5 per cent. from the Sinking Fund commission or elsewhere. Gov. Ansel always calls upon successful business men to transact business interests of the State, as in the case of the winding up commission for the dispensary, such as John McSweeney, Avery Patton, Dr. W. J. Murray and J. Steel Bryce. The politicians as a general rule don't like this independent way the Governor has of doing things but he moves along quietly doing his own thinking and acting. We predict, in advance, that this commission will do as well as the winding up Dispensary commission and this is saying a great deal.

Social News.

The Easter german, given by the Lancaster german club last Tuesday evening, March 29th, in Mackey's Hall, was probably the best dance ever given in Lancaster. The floor was in perfect condition, the music furnished by Johnson's orchestra was splendid and there was never before a more attractive crowd of girls. During the evening a delicious supper was served in the Heath-Jones building just across the street. Many young men from various places attended and the visiting girls present were Misses Virginia Cardwell, Connors Melton, Sadie Pinkney, and Christine McIlwain of Columbia, Annie Stackhouse of Marion, Shirley Montgomery of Concord, Hallie Carrison of Camden, Clarice Knight of Gastonia, Mary Price of Reidsville and Annie Sitgreaves of Laurens.

On last Wednesday morning a congenial party of young people enjoyed a delightful trip to Kershaw in Col. Leroy Springs' handsome Winton touring car. On their return a sumptuous course dinner awaited them at the Springs mansion. After dinner the guests enjoyed music for awhile and then another automobile ride. Those who are indebted to Col. Springs for this very pleasant day are Miss Carrison of Camden, Misses Cardwell and Melton and Pinkney of Columbia, Montgomery of Concord, Malloy, Wylie, Mrs. Odel of Concord, and Messrs. John T. Stevens and Henry of Chester.

Miss Juanita Wylie was the hostess of the Emery Club at its meeting on Thursday afternoon. Her guest, Miss Halley Carrison assisted her in receiving and entertaining the club. After a pleasant hour's chat, Misses Louise Wylie and Dorothy Moore served a two-course luncheon. Miss Eliza Wylie played several piano selections. Those present besides the members of the club were Mrs. Zemp and Miss Montgomery of Concord, Mrs. Walter Stevens, Miss Connors Melton and Virginia Cardwell of Columbia, Miss Henrietta Malloy, and

This has necessitated retardation in certain grades. Time will secure satisfactory results. J. M. Ariail.

Current Events.

Ex-President is now in Rome. He expected to have an audience with the Pope and had his Holiness notified of his wishes. The Pope was agreeably provided. Mr. Roosevelt would consent to be circumspect in his conduct, as was required of Mr. Fairbanks under similar circumstances while in Rome. Mr. Roosevelt very sensibly, refused to comply with the wishes of the hermit of the Vatican, hence he will not see the Pope.

Ex-President Roosevelt visited King Victor Emanuel at the Quirinal twice Monday. In the evening he and Mrs. Roosevelt, Kermit and Miss Ethel were present at a grand dinner, at the palace, given by the King and Queen in honor of Col. Roosevelt and family.

On Sunday morning, near Rockingham N. C., Pearl Brunson, a merchant shot and killed Oscar Williams after beating him with a chair.

Miss Mayme Jones.

A dozen little friends and her teacher, Miss Bessie Harper, enjoyed with Katherine Wylie a little "April Fool" surprise party in celebration of her ninth birthday. After games and ices on the lawn the little party was taken to Capt. King's popular resort, the Lyric, where appropriate pictures delighted the little ones.
